In the McFARLAND trial we notice they had introduced an instrument called a dynamograph which was put to McFarland to test his lie, no system and see if he had any will of his own. What are we coming to?

There is a dwarf negro in Lexington, Ky., the reputed son of the late S. S. Prentiss—who is said to possess all the fine mental endowments of his so-called father. He speaks Hebrew, Greek and Latin; and though deformed and distorted in body he has been licensed to preach in the Lexington Presbytery.

D. F. Caldwell, Esq., of Greensborough, one of North Carolina's most honest and gifted sons, is recommended as a suitable conservative candidate for congress in the 5th district. He is a high-toned gentleman and would credit upon his constituents and native State, as Congressman. We have known him from boyhood up, and know him to be a pure man—one who believes that political honesty is as essential as the moral element, and that the man who is politically dishonest cannot be morally honest.

A Nomination.
There is a man in Caswell county that deserves a seat in the Legislature. He is plenty honest to take honorable care of his trust; plenty intelligent and active to faithfully and diligently perform his trust; and he fought through the war. It is Col. E. BENTON WITHERS. We propose him for the House of Representatives from Caswell.

Mourn with those who mourn.
As in days gone by we have rejoiced with those who rejoice under the glad old hills of Richmond, so now we mourn with those that mourn in the sad city on the seven hills. Some of her best men have been crushed to death under the ruins of one of her grandest and most ancient buildings. We recognize among the killed poor Charley Watson—a one armed ex-Confederate soldier, and once an associate with us as clerk at the depot in Danville, but more latterly connected with the depot at Richmond of the Richmond and Danville road. He leaves a young wife to sigh out the "long, long, weary day" ere she joins him in the spirit land. And there too was Dr. Brock of the Enquirer; a high minded honorable young man and popular with all who knew him. On the same day that Brock was killed, probably, the same hour, his health was drank by the visiting committee going up the railroad from Richmond to Greensboro. He had always heretofore made one of the party, and was expected on this occasion, but this dreadful court room decision required his attention and prevented him from being present. The horrors experienced under that mass of rubbish and ruins cannot be described. Some men drank the red blood of their dying companions as they were pressed close down to them their mouths filled with the life blood as it oozed out from the bleeding wounds and ghastly bruises of expiring mortality. Heaven! we turn from the thought, and with ex-Gov. Wise, the best we think we can do is on our knees—pray on our bellies—to humble ourselves in the dust and pray God to have mercy on us, the living, whom, may be, he has spared for a still worse fate. Who can tell?

DEATH OF JUDGE REEVES, OF TENN.

The Somerville (Tenn.) Falcon of the 28th ult. announces the death of the Hon. George W. Reeves, which occurred at his residence in that town on the 21st April.

Judge Reeves was born in this county April 6th, 1814, and was at the time of his death in the 57th year of his age. In 1835 he removed to Somerville, Tenn., where he resided to the day of his death an honored and respected citizen. After his removal to Tennessee he abandoned his mechanical profession and studied law. In 1865 President Johnson appointed him a Judge of the Fifteenth Judicial district, and in May 1869, was elected to the same position by the people, and continued to discharge the duties of the office until December last, when he was stricken down by hemorrhage of the lungs whilst presiding at the term of the Fayette Circuit Court & was from that time confined to his room until death ended his sufferings.

Public Meeting.
According to previous notice meeting of the citizens of Patterson Township was held at Patterson's Mill on Saturday the 30th April 1870. On motion of Wm. N. Patterson, Hiram Marcom was called to the chair and A. B. Couch appointed secretary. Mr. Patterson explained the object of the meeting, and moved that a committee of three be appointed by the chair to prepare business for the meeting, when Charles G. Marcom, H. H. Patterson and A. B. Couch were named as the committee.

After consultation the committee returned and reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, it is proposed to hold a convention of the conservative party in Hillsboro on Saturday the 7th day of May next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislature and the various county offices; therefore be it resolved,

1st. That we think it proper to hold such a convention, and we approve of the plan by which it is proposed, that the convention shall be composed of delegates authorized to act as agents at the meeting.

2d. That we are deeply impressed with the importance of selecting men for office who are known to be both honest and capable, and that we should hold them to a strict accountability for their acts as in no other way can we preserve and maintain the respect and purity that should characterize every official position, and we trust the convention in its wisdom will present to us proper men for our suffrages.

3rd. That we condemn the extravagance and corruption practiced in the late Legislature by which the good name of the state has been seriously injured and our people subjected to ruinous taxation in their impoverished condition.

4th. That we will not despair of our good old state with all her cherished memories of the past, and with all her living emblems of purity, but casting aside all personal and former political considerations we will stand together as one man against the evil tendencies of the times, and yield a ready obedience to the laws and "the powers that be" until more honest and capable rulers, and more wholesome laws shall prevail.

5th. That we approve of and endorse the principles and platform as laid down in the address of the conservative members of the Legislature.

6th. That while we disclaim entertaining any undue preferences for any class or profession of our fellow citizens we would suggest the vast importance of the farming interest and the large class of the community engaged in it, that two of the three members to the Legislature should be selected from that class.

7th. That three delegates be appointed by the chairman for each school district to represent the Township in the convention.

8th. That the chairman appoint an Executive committee to consist of one person from each school district of the Township.

The following persons were appointed delegates to the county Convention:

Mr. Moriah District—Henry S. Marcom, A. B. Couch, S. F. Patterson.

Comfort District—Geo. Shepherd, W. R. Marcom, H. T. Carlton.

Berea District—Walter A. Barber, Geo. W. Vickery, Wm. Linn.

South East District—A. B. Gunter, Lewis Harvard, Simpson Barber.

New Hope District—Dr. Thos. Hogan, Leedy Atkins, Jos. Atkins, sr.

The following persons were appointed as Executive Committee for the Township.

W. N. Patterson, A. B. Gunter, Dr. Thos. Hogan, C. G. Marcom, Lewis Harvard.

On motion the Hillsboro Recorder and Raleigh Sentinel were requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

HIRAM MARCOM, Chrmr., A. B. COUCH Sec'y.

Public Meeting.
A meeting of the voters of Cedar Grove Township was held April 30th, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the county Convention in Hillsboro the 7th of May. The chairman, Col. Wm. H. Jordan, appointed the following gentlemen—three from each school district—as delegates.

Capt. Wm. T. Tate, James McAdams, Capt. Wm. T. Tate, James McAdams,

J. M. Scott, Col. J. T. Allen, Maj. Allen Compton, John Corbett, Eli J. Hester, W. R. Sharp, Robert W. Anderson, A. M. Breeze, A. M. Jordan, Eli Berry, Thos. Wilson, John Redding, D. W. Jordan, Bedford Warren, John D. Corbin, S. M. Wilkinson.

The address of the conservative members of the Legislature was heartily endorsed from Alpha to Omega. The feeling was very general that the number of professional men representing us in the Legislature should be reduced, and that the sober hard-fisted, sun-burnt, common-sense mechanics and farmers should have a little something more to do with running the "machinery" than they have had of late years.

HARD FIST.

Public Meeting.

According to previous notice, there was a meeting of the citizens of the Bingham Township held at White Cross on Saturday the 23rd inst.

On motion C. P. Stroud, was called to the chair and A. P. Cates was appointed secretary.

The object of the meeting was explained in a few appropriate remarks. The meeting was entertained by speeches from R. M. Jones, Mathew Atwater, and Emich Sykes, after which the following delegates were appointed to attend the county Convention to be held at Hillsboro on the 7th of May.

Alvis Durham, Wesley Atwater, John W. Stroud, M. Atwater, T. P. Bradshaw, James Morris, Wm. Andres, A. P. Cates, William Strain.

On motion it was ordered that the secretary forward a copy of this meeting to the Hillsboro Recorder for publication.

C. P. STRoud, Chrmr., A. P. CATES, Sec'y.

—New Mexico. And she is "right good looking," and she ought to come in—What's her number? Set her down No. 38. How many more are coming behind her? Let us see. There are Colorado, Arizona, Dakota, Wyoming, Montana, Utah, Idaho, Washington. With all these admitted the number of States will be forty-six.

Then from Texas, with her two-hundred and thirty-seven thousand square miles of territory, at least two new States must be cut out, which will give us forty-eight States. Then leaving Alaska—about five hundred thousand square miles in all—out in the cold, but taking in the New Dominion, and the West Indies and old Mexico, and—and—we give it up.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING.

We are requested to say that the annual meeting of the North Carolina Conference Sunday School Society will be held in this town May 12th, at 10 o'clock A. M. The opening sermon will be preached at 8 p. m. by Rev. J. H. Dally, of Raleigh. The Revs. P. J. Carraway and E. A. Yates will deliver addresses.

The Milton Tobacco Market.

The sales at the Ellison & Co. Warehouse, advertised in this paper by the enterprising Proprietors, are deemed a sufficient index to the ruling prices of the market. Our latest intelligence represents Tobacco pouring into this Warehouse and prices highly satisfactory. We advise Planters to rush the "weed" into market; and in doing so don't forget that the Ellison Warehouse, at Milton, is the house for "tall figures."

CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

The Convention to nominate a conservative candidate for Congress in the 5th District, will be held at Greensboro on Thursday the 29th May (inst.).

The Tenth of May.

A woman loves a flower. Her heart is but a flower garden of roses and violets and the pure lilies. God bless the women. They remember a thousand times to where a man forgets nine hundred and ninety nine. Yes, the women love our dead. Rough man has forgotten them—but the women! never. On the tenth of May the ladies of this place will strew and decorate with flowers the graves of our own honored and gallant soldiers who fell amid the roar of thunder and the rattling of musketry fighting like poor men that they were for what they thought was right.

Our women will never forget these men, no, never. Let them come out then on the tenth of May, their aprons filled with flowers, the beautiful tokens of remembrance that woman carries in her quiver whenever she wants to transfix a tear into the memory of the past—and let them scatter flowers broadcast over the graves of our boys, our boys who fought under the Bonnie Blue Flag, and make the earth bloom afresh with spring daisies, and spring violets, and spring hyacinths, and lilies. They will shed their vapors as sweet incense—to go up and sprinkle the laurels of angel warriors with the dew drop of sympathy from the tender eye of woman. Remember the tenth of May.

Mad Dogs in Leasburg—A Boy Bit.
The dogs about Leasburg are running mad. The fine black dog owned by Col. Wilkerson we learn is among the number. A little boy—the son of Mr. Culbreth—was bitten, we learn, and was taken over to Mr. Pointer's in Person county to test the mad stone. It was applied, but with what effect, we have not learned.

THE MAD STONE.

It has been in Mr. Pointer's family a long time. The stone is porous and of a grayish color. It was left with the grandfather of Mr. Pointer many years ago by an old Indian who stopped at his house all night and had no money. Old Mr. Pointer wouldn't charge a cent, but the Indian left this stone, told him what it would do, and to keep the stone till he called for it. It has cured many persons. We have since learned that the mad stone took effect; it adhered to the bite three times; and the probability is the boy is safe.

There is a Warehouse.

There is a Warehouse in the town of Milton to which we can confidently recommend tobacco planters to take their tobacco. It is LIBERTY WAREHOUSE represented by Ellison, and Salmon, and Morris of Richmond. All of these men are liberal buyers and time men, minute men. In other words they are "up to biz." None of your squeeze fist scammers who will show the white of their eyes over the loss of a copper cent in a hay stack. They are number one liberal tobaccoconcerns who will be the best judges of the market we have ever seen.

THE SALES.

On last Friday there were ten thousand pounds of tobacco taken to Milton—the most of it to Ellison Warehouse, or LIBERTY—as you'll have it. Mr. W. B. Ellison is by far the life of this market. Were you to take him out of bed before day he'd give a reching, price for your tobacco before other people had opened their eyes.

Auctioneers Patti in Russia.

We see that some of the late representations of PAUL at St. Petersburg when Patti had concluded one of her brilliant cadenzas she suddenly heard a faithful echo of the strain from behind the scenes. The imitation was so perfect that she had the curiosity to find out whence it came. She discovered that the warbler was a young girl, nine years of age. Patti offered to take the child to educate. Her parents would not part with her, but through the intervention of the great cantatrice she has been received into the Conservatorium. The name of this protege of the Marquise de Caux is MARIE ADLER, nicknamed "Patti's Echo," by the Russian people.

WAKE SNAKES.

A man ditching in some swampy land three miles from Hillsboro killed forty-five water moccasons in one day. Some of them were the size of his arm.

Col. J. D. Wilkerson, of Leasburg, is mentioned as a candidate for the Legislature from Caswell.

The Planter's Warehouse at Danville.

This Warehouse was established in Danville in January last. JAMES M. NEAL is at the head of it. Mr. Neal is the son of THOS. NEAL, now in Richmond with WISE Bros.—and the very founder of the tobacco market as it was started in Danville many years ago—probably a half century. Young Neal as a tobaccoconist is a fine prototype of Neal, senior. A quick and liberal bidder; a keen and perceptive judge of tobacco; and withal one of the most zealous of men to enhance the interests of the men who entrust their tobacco to his charge.

HIS AUCTIONEER

Is the very best extant. JOHN NEAL beats them all. He can put wagons through by the dozen in lightning time, and it is a circus to hear him at it. An old hand he has been at the bellows pretty nearly all his life.

WHAT A FRIEND SAYS.

Mr. S. Hough of Prospect Hill informs us that Band, a negro working on Zekel Sartin's land—last Saturday sold seventy five pounds of his tobacco at the Planter's Warehouse at one dollar a pound. The whole of this negro man's crop brought him three hundred dollars. Sartin, himself, got eighty dollars a round for his at the same Warehouse, and his crop was seconds. And Henry Cooper got sixty three for his. All of these men are our subscribers.

The Conductors on the Danville Road.

There is Capt. Geo. H. LINDSEY, a young man of culture and refinement, who commenced years ago as a Baggage Master, now a conductor, and one of the most polite and genial we ever saw. There is Capt. WISE—who is also sober and faithful as to seem like an old man, although he is a young one, and as good a conductor as ever pulled a bell rope. And then there is Capt. Vaden—once a brakeman on that road—now a conductor, a number one conductor. BUFORD watches his men, and wherever there seems merit, he tests it, and then rewards it.

Dr. Sanders' Pills Cure Chicken Cholera.

It may not be generally known that Dr. Sanders, of Chapel Hill, N. C., makes the best Pill for all diseases they are recommended for, manufactured in the U. S., although no big "bus" is made over their medicinal virtues. We simply desire in this laconic notice to state a fact vouch'd for by our friend, Walter A. Thompson, Esq., to wit: These Pills cure chicken cholera—cure it speedily and effectually.

LET US RETURN THANKS.—The adorable Miss Laura Keen and that scientific "corn doctor" (Lindemann) having left Baltimore, the papers of that city will now find other subjects for local notice.

WHEAT.

Old farmers in this section inform us that they never, at this season, saw such a fine prospect for a good wheat crop.

THOSE SALES.

It is always a pleasure to refer to the sales of HOLLAND'S WAREHOUSE in Danville. It does decidedly the largest business of any Warehouse in the South; in fact, so busy has been the rush on it that wagons have had to turn off and go elsewhere. Try them.

A Radical Meeting.

Composed, as we learn, of eight white men and nine negroes, sat in this place last Saturday. They "soot" and "soot" and "soot" that's all we know about it. So

"Look! O look way-over-yonder, Don't you see the old gray-gooey smiling at the Gander?"

A Siamese Twin Birth.

It is probably not generally known that North Carolina has a pair of "Siamese Twins" of colored complexion, born in Columbus county, who are 18 years old and now on exhibition in the distant West. They enjoy good health and are reputed very intelligent.

We are informed that twin children were lately born to a very worthy and highly esteemed family in High Point. They were joined to each other after the manner of the Siamese Twins; but the doctor cut the cord loose and the children died.

A Grape-Vineyard in Rockingham.

Mr. R. P. Richardson who lives near Reidsville has a most extensive vineyard. Sixteen acres are planted in the grape; and ten thousand grape-vines four years old are growing on them. Of these there are ten varieties: Catawba, Scuppernong, Isabella, Blanca, Iona, Delaware, Clinton, Concord, Hartford Prolific, and Virginia Norton. Mr. Richardson made four hundred gallons of wine last year which he sold for two dollars and a half a gallon; and this year he expects to make fifteen hundred gallons which he intends shipping to Richmond and Baltimore.

Company Shops.

Our correspondent, a highly respected and intelligent man, complains of Mr. Boon, the postmaster, being so liberal as to allow anybody to go into the Post Office and take out his own mail. Stop that, Mr. Boon.

And says one correspondent:

Madam Rumor says that in consequence of the Governor's proclamation declaring Alamance in insurrection there will be no court here. Don't care.

The troops have all left Company Shops and gone to Dakota.

We are alive at the prospect of a good wheat crop, certainly the most promising looking crop at present since the year 1845. And our mouths are already watering to taste the delicious fruits now hastening to maturity.

I am reminded that when I was married on the eleventh of May 1853, large bowls of good ripe strawberries were set before us. May you and I enjoy a like feast on the eleventh of May 1870, is the wish of your friend and subscriber." A. D.

A STORE STORE LAID.

The corner stone of the new brick store begun by the late Capt. Berry sometime ago was laid last Monday. Among other things put in the rock was a Recorder of January 23rd, 1870, and written on it "Peace on earth and good will to all men!"

May 1st, 1870.

There were also two copies of the Raleigh Standard put in the rock, one of them containing an account of the Richmond disaster with a drawing of the Court room in it; and also a copy of the Raleigh Standard. This we have learned since making the first notice.

HERE'S GOOD LIQUOR.—The Senior returns thanks to Mr. J. Y. Whited, Druggist of this town, for a bottle of the best and purest Old Rye Whiskey that he ever tasted. Mr. Whited (as will be seen from his advertisement in this paper,) has a variety of pure and unadulterated liquors for Medicinal use exclusively. So if you want a pure article of liquor—the real, genuine magnum-bonum article—for medicinal use of course—call at Capt. Whited's Drug Store, where you'll find a heavy stock of Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, &c.

Sudden Ill.

Wm. H. Crisp, a very worthy and sober farmer near Prospect Hill in Caswell, fell down in the streets of Hillsboro Wednesday day of Court in an insensible and suffering condition. He was taken to the back room of Dr. Hooker's Drug Store and Doctors CAMERON, BERRY, and BAYNE, were in attendance the last we saw of him.

As we go to press Mr. Crisp is rolling in apparent great agony and seems perfectly insensible. His little son was along with him and stood by his father in the most fearful concern. Mr. Crisp is said to be a perfectly sober man; he had eaten nothing for breakfast but biscuit and butter; though he is said to be a dyspeptic. His pulse seemed good, and a healthy perspiration was on his skin, but his agony seemed to be indescribable. We are glad to learn he is getting better.

HOW OLD BEFORE THEY SPIN.

The worm will complete its growth in four and six weeks. There are two varieties: the four weeks worm, and the six weeks worm. The six weeks worms are preferred, their cocoons are larger and more easily reeled than the four weeks ones.

When they are ready to go to spinning, some preparation is necessary to be provided for them to make their cocoons. Some persons make up papers in a conical shape a half or two inches long with the small end closed up, and the open end about one inch in diameter. But the better plan is to cut small bushes and place them in the sun until the leaves are contracted and curled up by the heat of the sun, and then place the bushes where the worm can reach them and they will crawl up the bushes and make their cocoons in the hollow of the leaves.

TO GET THE SILK.

The spinning process will be finished in a day or two, and the cocoons intended for manufacture must be exposed to the hot sun several days, or steamed, in order to kill the chrysalis, otherwise, it will cut out and thereby cut the fibre in such manner as will be impossible to reel the silk from the cocoon. After the chrysalis is killed the art of reeling the silk from the cocoon is most beautiful work for the ladies, and we can make the finest and most substantial material of silk.

CEAR GROVE, N. C., May 2nd, 1870. Editors Recorders: Gentlemen—I have just been appointed a delegate to attend the grand powwow in Raleigh some time in the present month and I am learning that it might have the effect of misleading the people in regard to my political position. I respectfully ask you to allow me through the columns of the Recorders to say to my friends and to the people of Orange that I have no affiliation with the dominant party, and that I have made no contract with the Confederate or with the Confederacy. I knew nothing of the meeting Saturday at which I was appointed a delegate, and no one gave me any authority, whatever, from me, for making such appointment.

The address of the con-convener of the late Legislature contains the platform on which I have stood since the new order of things, and it is broad and liberal enough for any except the plunderers and treasurers who are now, by accident, in power.

Very respectfully, JOHN K. HUGHES.

A Family Medicine.

We call the special attention of our readers to the advertisements of that favorite home remedy, Perry Davis' PAIN KILLER. It has been before the public over THIRTY YEARS, and probably has a wider and better reputation than any other proprietary medicine of the present day. At this period there are but few unequalled with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a balsam, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally.

We therefore, wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands to-day, unrivaled by any of the great catalogue of Family Medicines. It is sufficient evidence of its virtues as a standard medicine, to know that it is now used in all parts of the world, and that sales are constantly increasing. No manufacturer has had such widespread sale, or given such universal satisfaction. It is a purely vegetable compound, and perfectly safe, even in unskillful hands.

New Advertisements.—Taylor and Bro. of Danville return thanks, HOLLAND'S WAREHOUSE, do Danville do do J. Y. Whited, Druggs, &c. T. C. Ellis, Dry Goods, Perry Davis, Pain Killer. Several Advertisements unavoidably crowded out.

HOW TO RAISE THE WORMS.

Many a little boy has seen the long airy string looking like the fibre of a cobweb as it hangs down maybe from a forest or mulberry tree, and on it is attached a little round and long grayish looking shell in which there is a worm. Well, that shell is called a cocoon. Now, the idea is to raise the worms from this cocoon; how is it done? Nothing easier. You place this cocoon or shell in a room well lighted and a table. The chrysalis—the thing inside—will cut its way out of this shell and come about the size of a bee; and the female, as soon as she cuts out will commence depositing her eggs on paper; and it is astonishing, the number of eggs she will deposit—a very few of those butterflies will furnish a sufficient number of eggs to produce worms by the thousand. These eggs you preserve by folding up the paper on which they are laid and putting them away in some cool, dark, dry place, in a dry cellar for instance, until the next spring. Then as soon as the eggs are put in a light and airy room and the young worm will come out in a few black ants.

HOW TO FEED THEM.—You commence feeding them as soon as they come out. They will do better to have fresh food all the time, but by feeding them at bed time and early in the morning and a good supply through the day they will do very well. The manner of feeding is simply to spread the leaves of the mulberry upon them and they will soon eat through, and come out on top. Care must be taken to keep them clean; this you will find to require some labor unless you have them placed in such manner that you can change them from one place to another with the least trouble. It is a good plan as any to have frames two and a half feet square filled in with wire or twine like a riddle to feed the worms upon, and when you wish to change them, place an empty frame over the one occupied, leave enough for the worms to reach it, and cover it over with leaves, and they will pass into the upper one, leaving the lower one empty; then it can be taken out and cleaned; and by thus alternating, your frames can be kept clean without much trouble.

HOW OLD BEFORE THEY SPIN.—The worm will complete its growth in four and six weeks. There are two varieties: the four weeks worm, and the six weeks worm. The six weeks worms are preferred, their cocoons are larger and more easily reeled than the four weeks ones.

Poetical.

All the Sound I Heard.

I'm thinking of the time Kate,
When sitting by thy side,
And picking beans, laid on the floor,
I heard a noise which pricks
My silence leaned we o'er the pan,
And neither spoke a word;
And the rattling of the beans, Kate,
Was all the sound I heard.

They unbend and hung down, Kate,
When leaning o'er the dish;
The same eyes, half filled with tears,
Besoke a spirit meek.
To be so charmed as I was then
Had ne'er before occurred,
When the rattling of the beans, Kate,
Was all the sound I heard.

The Woman Question—“Can you let me have $20 this morning?”

New motto for merchants—
Late to bed, and early to rise,
Never get tired, and advertise.

Why is laziness like money? Because the more a man has of it, the more he wants.

When you see a man yawn and close his eyes during the sermon, it is a sign that he is getting sleepy.

SIGNS.—When you see the sun rising before you get out of bed, it is a sign that you'd not do a farmer.

A little boy out West being asked if he knew where heirs went, answered: “Yes, to New York to write for the papers.”

Good style of walking—when you get into an editor's room walk right out. It is healthy exercise, particularly for the editor.

Daughter said an anxious parent to his little one, “didn't I tell you to eat no more green apples?” “Yes, papa, but this is a yellow one.”

When you see a boy throwing stones on the street and speaking impudently to old people, it is a sign that his parent's don't care much for him.

“What branch of education do you have chiefly in your school?” “A willow branch, sir; the master has used up almost a whole tree.”

The editor of a Missouri paper asks his readers to excuse the looks of his paper, as he is in bed from the effects of a fight with a delinquent subscriber.

John Onion the suggestive name of an Illinois editor. When he feels himself gets down heartily to his work he must bring water to the eyes of his readers.

When you see a girl throwing kisses and winking at the boys as they pass her window, it is a sign that she is two young to be out of sight of her maternal relative.

When you see a man trying to convince a lamp post that it is impolite to try to get in the way of a gentleman, it is a sign that he has been drinking—lemonade perhaps.

“Lenny you're a pig,” said a father to his little five year old boy. “Now, do you know what a pig is, Lenny?”

“You sir; a pig is a hog's little boy.”

“Where are you going?” asked a little boy of another who had slipped and fallen on his icy pavement.

“Going to get up” was the blunt reply.

A revivalist encountering an African, asked him, “My good man, have you found the Lord?” To which Sambo replied in a surprised manner: “Golly massa am de Lord lost?”

When you see young gentlemen and ladies whispering and giggling and writing notes in church, it is a sign that the man who teaches good manners omitted to give them a call when he come along the last time.

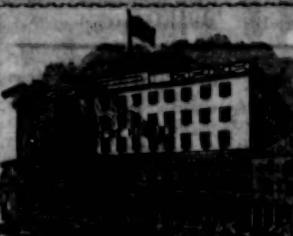

The most affectionate specimen of amateur poetry that came to our notice during the past week is the following:

When old Robert sits on sally's chair,
On! don't I wish that I were there;
When her fairy fingers pat his head,
Oh! don't I wish 'twas me instead.
When Sally's arms his neck imprison,
Oh! don't I wish my neck was his';
When Sally kissed Robert's nose,
Oh! don't I wish that I were those.

A young gentleman recently found himself in company with three young ladies, and generously divided an orange between them. “You will rob yourself,” exclaimed one of the damsels. “Not at all,” replied the innocent; “I have three or four more in my pocket!”

“Friend Mallary, I am pleased thee has got such a fine organ in thy church.” “But,” said the clergyman, “I thought you were strongly opposed to having an organ in a church.” “So I am,” said friend Obadiah, “but if thou will worship the Lord with machinery, I would ask thee to have a first rate instrument.”
